

cheg: will have his coffee with the collector and

and at all hours. His Sunday dinners are a sight to behold. He is patronized by the best people in the city. Give him a trial and you will not go away hungry. For very pleasant dance took place last night. Eighteenth street.

There were some fine suits of games clothing just received at the American Clothing store, corner Sixth and James streets. This store completed their invoice yesterday, finding that they had received a large lot of goods which go at actual selling prices. The goods formerly sold at $25 will be sold at 2. Overcoats formerly sold at $18 and will sell at $15 and $17. The remainder of the goods will be sold at 1/2 price room for the large stock of spring goods ordered. These goods are of the best quality and latest styles. Call early and secure gains never before equaled.

At the position of take your prescriptions to Marsh Bros., a drug store. Their prescribing department cannot be equaled in this city. They're four registered pharmacists in their employ. Night calls promptly attended to.

Wilson & Mead, that old reliable insurance company, has a branch at their headquarters on North Main. Year after year they patronize a happy few. Year after year they get for their past favors and call for a thank-you. Office 1908 West Sixth street.

Two colored doctors caused a little excitement on North Main last afternoon, by playing a little Sullivan method.

C. K. Kerr, owner of Ewing and Sixth streets, invites the attention of the public to stock of pure and fresh drugs. Dr. Bissell, who attended to the night call, promptly and sure in attending to the prescribing department. Night calls promptly answered.

rod. The finest line of imported and domestic cigars always in stock. They return thanks for the liberal patronage extended to them by the citizens for a further show of kindness.

Try McKenzie's Sunday dinners.

Wilson & Mead start with the new year a fine lot of choice bargains in real estate in Riverview, Armourdale, Wyandotte and the City. Give them a call.

The Bay State shoe store offers goods at prices never before heard of. They are extending the largest stock of goods direct from abroad, and have to sell the present stock to the room. Call at once and secure bargains.

W. Swopes, the old reliable druggist, corner 9th and Wyoming streets, wishes to inform his patrons that he is still in the business.

and will continue to with an enlarged staff. His prescriptive department will be under his special attention. The best line of books in the city. Give him a call.

Pleasanton, Kas.

A man by the name of A. Green, an employee of J. Bell, a railroad contractor, was arrested for check for $4 00, and he raised it to $5 00, and cashed it at Hood & Kincaid's bank, then took flight on a handcar, and was overtaken by a locomotive and captured by a fine gold headed cane was presented to D. Cross by the town company, of which was a member.

The St. Louis & Emporia railroad have the connections with Butler, Mo. Mail and passenger trains are now running.

The Kansas City post of the Travelers' Protective Association.

The Protective association will hold a meeting at Brunswick this evening. Delegations in other cities are expected.

Argentine.

Mr. Burke and wife received callers yesterday at their dew residence on Silver ave.

he ball at Killmer hall last night was a fect success.
ew year's was observed by the Sante Fe
pany yesterday.
rs. Bruseman entertained a number of
nds yesterday.
he protracted meeting that has been in gress during the past two weeks continues
a renewed interest.

Mayor's Proclamation.
MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CITY OF KANSAS, Jan. 2, 1886.
special meeting of the common council
the City of Kansas, is hereby called to
at the council chamber, in the old cour se, on this (Saturday) evening, Jan. 2, at

JOHN W. MOORE, Mayor.

TOO EAGER TO ACCEPT.

Newport Landlord Pays $50 to Learn a Trick from a "Shover of the Queer."

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 29.—The other evening Mr. Peter Clark was strolling along Fourth street, Newport, he met a woman in a thin shawl and calico wrapper, with a rifle in her arms. The wind was piercingly cold, and the woman was crying bitterly.

"What's the matter, madam?" said Mr. Clark.

"I am homeless—have been turned out of

"because I can't pay my rent, and have placed to go with my little boy." "Who was your landlord?" "Mr. Williams—there he stands," pointed to a crouching figure that stood in the doorway. "Did you turn this woman and child out to find a night like this?" "No, sir; she wouldn't pay her rent, and I told her houses for nothing." "Well," said Mr. Clark, putting his hand in into his pocket, "come here, madam; I must just pay that rent myself. Here is the bill; give me the change and make out receipt."

Like the drowning man catches at a straw, Williams grabbed the bill and handed back in change. Then he entered his residence and the receipt was prepared. It took him some time, but Williams discovered

The bill was counterfeited, and everybody to him told the story only laughed at him. It shows that the Lord sometimes selects currency of the Devil to do his acts of mystery with.

Smallpox in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Two new cases of smallpox were discovered yesterday on the persons of a mother and daughter, passengers of the incoming Pittsburg & Fort Wayne train. The mother came from New York, and, on the steamer Spain and on arrival in New York bought transportation for Chicago at this state. The mother, however, was not ill before she left New York and yesterday morning came on board the train. She was afflicted with smallpox. She and her daughter were at once taken to a hospital where every precaution taken to guard from

[illegible][illegible]

50c; yellow, $1.00@1.25. Cabbage, home made, 14c per lb. Celery, 30¢@50c per bunch.
Fruits—Apples, market drill at $2.00 per bbl.
best; common to medium, $1.25@1.75. Cranberries, Bell and Cherry, $6.50; Bell and Bugle, $6.00.
DRIED FRUITS—Apples, bright sun dried, 10¢c;
dry, 2¢c peaches do, 2¢c@3c; hail, bright, large
c—blackberries, 8¢@10c.
FARMER'S FRUITS—Apples, 5¢@6c per lb.;
cranberries, 7¢@8c; peaches, 11¢@15c; peels, 20¢@25c;
cherries, 20¢@23c; apricots, 23¢@25c.
JAPANESE FRUITS—Lemons, $4.50@5.00; fancy,

8. Oranges, Louisiana, per box, $3.75; per $5.95; Florida, per box, $4.25. Malaga grapes bbl., $7.00. Coconuts, per box, $1.50.
corn CORN.—We quote:—Hurl, 7c; Self working 6½c; common, red tipped, 4c; crooked, 3½c.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Honey, extracted, 3 lb. @ 8c;
b, patent boxes, 2 lb., 15¢; 1 lb., 17¢; 18c;
b, broken, in large packages, 10¢; brooms,
stry made, per doz., $1.50. Sugar, white,
white, medium, bright, sweet and clear, per gallon, 12c; brown, 10c; 8c; per lb. Saur Kraut, per bbl.,

1/2 per half bbl. $4.00.
HYTE BEANS.—Country quotable at $1.25 for no, and at 10@95c for inferior to fair. Eastern I picked $1.80 for navy and $1.50 for medium.
FLOW.—No. 1, 4½c; No. 2, 4c.
PEAS.—We quote No. 1 at 18@22c per lb.
CATHARS.—Livers—se, 47c; mixed, 20@30c.
BEANS—White, 4c ½ lb.; brown, 3½c ½ lb. Col-4c.

